Mr. S. Ahsan Imam Rizvi for petitioner.

-.-.-

Petitioner apparently was dismissed from service somewhere in June 2005 on the strength of some allegations, which itself is independent order in the shape of office memorandum. He may have been acquitted in terms of order passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court from such charges, as is claimed, but then the independent order in the shape of office memorandum, referred above, has attained finality. It is claimed that against such order of dismissal, representation is pending. In the circumstances, learned counsel may advise his client, one way or the other, to pursue such remedy or otherwise, however, this Court in the instant petition, based on the acquittal order, cannot intervene in respect of an order passed earlier with regard to dismissal of the petitioner as it also suffers from laches. Petition as such is dismissed along with listed applications.
