This petition was filed ostensibly on account of alleged harassment, however, the respondents are present and submit that no harassment has been caused and neither shall any be caused in future.

The petitioner No.1, Mst. Aqsa, is present in Court and states that she may be restored to the safe custody of her parents. Her Birth Certificate issued by the Government of Sindh available on record shows her date of birth as 13.05.2011. The record also demonstrates that 'B' Form issued by NADRA reflects the same date. School Certificate reflecting the same is on record. Nothing is available before this Court to consider either of these documents forged or fabricated. Be that as it may, the issue of child marriage is stated to be before the concerned court and may be decided in accordance with the law. Per joint request, the custody of the petitioner No.1 is restored to her parents.

For the present purposes and based on the submissions of the parties, the petition has become infructuous, hence, dismissed accordingly.

Needless to state that the petitioners, like any other citizens, shall remain at liberty to approach the official respondents for protection in accordance with the law.
