Despite orders of this Court the appellant's counsel has failed to appear today and Mr. Latif Advocate holding his brief had initially no idea where the appellant's counsel has gone but then he stated that perhaps he is on his way to Lahore. As he was given a chance on the last date and today's fixed date was given at his request he should have been here. He is also stated to be on general adjournment however the same was granted to him except date by Court matters and it is a date by Court matter. In the circumstances, instant High Court Appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution along with listed applications.
