No one is in attendance on behalf of the petitioner and no intimation has been received. A perusal of the order sheet reflects that this was also the case on previous date. Even otherwise, the petitioner is seeking appointment on the basis of deceased/child quota, without any relevant rules and/or policy having been cited. The very concept of such quota has been struck down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case reported as General Post Office, Islamabad & others v. Muhammad Jalal (Civil Petition No. 3390 of 2021). Under the circumstances, the Petition stands dismissed accordingly
