HYDERABAD

C.P No.D-340 of 2021

ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE

Mr. Ahmed Nawaz Chang, advocate for petitioners

Mr. Muhammad Ismail Bhutto, Additional A.G Sindh

The petitioners have invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 of the Constitution, seeking payment of arrears of their salaries and regularization of their services. However, a perusal of pleadings reflects that the petitioners were engaged by the respondent No.7 vide letters of their contractual employment dated 01.08.2013 as Operators of R.O Plants installed in different villages of district Matiari by the respondent No.6, with it being stated that their salaries were stopped from June 2019 and that they were then terminated on 01.06.2020. Where the services of the petitioners have already been terminated, the question of regularization does not arise. Furthermore, as it transpires, the respondents No.6 and 7 both are private limited Companies and operating in the private domain, hence are even otherwise not amenable to the issuance of a writ. Under the circumstances, whilst granting the urgency we find the petition to be misconceived, which stands dismissed accordingly.
