14.01.2019

Mr. Munawar Malik, advocate for appellant. Respondent No.1 is present.

At the outset, learned counsel for the appellant contends that he will not press instant appeal if this Court grants three months' time for eviction of the premises, whereas respondent No.1 Muhamamd Ahsan present in person contends that on this pretext they have already availed sufficient time, however, he will not object if one month's time is allowed.

Under these circumstances, instant appeal is disposed of with direction to the appellants to evict the premises within two months from today and pay the utility bills as well as rent amount. On expiry of stipulated period, executing court shall ensure the possession of the premises to respondent No.1 without issuing further notices.
