20.11.2024

Syed Mujahid Ali Shah, advocate for the Petitioner
Mr. Zia-ul-Haq Kamboh, Advocate for Respondents No.3 to 5
Mr. Ghulam Abbas Kuber, AAG

A statement has been filed on behalf of Respondents No.3 & 4 along with an original cheque No.50219467 amounting to Rs.271680/- in lieu of leave encashment, which has been handed out to the petitioner. Learned Counsel representing the Respondents submits that now the petitioner has received amount in lieu of gratuity and leave encashment, however with regard to her claim for Family Assistance amounting to Rs.600,000/-, her application is under process and that sum would be credited into the account of the petitioner in two equal monthly installments for the months of January and February, 2025 along with regular monthly pension.

Counsel for the petitioner, in the given circumstances, submits that purpose of instant petition has been served and accordingly, he does not press instant petition, which is accordingly disposed of as such. However, with caution to the Respondents to ensure that the undertaking given by them be adhered to and payments be made without further delay.
