Appellant Rab Dino was tried by the learned Special Judge for CNS Badin in Special Case No.09 of 2005 for offence u/s 9(b) of CNS Act, 1997. By judgment dated 01.07.2006 appellant was found guilty and he was convicted u/s 9(b) of CNS Act, 1997 to suffer RI for 02 years and pay the fine of Rs.10,000/- In case of default in payment of fine he was ordered to suffer RI for 15 days more. Accused was extended the benefit of Section 382-B Cr.P.C. hence this appeal.

During the pendency of appeal, jail roll was called. Superintendent District Jail Badin vide his letter dated 15th April 2017 has reported that the accused Rabdino son of Dodo Chang has been released from the prison on 25.05.2007 on the expiry of his sentence and the total remission earned as 412 days. Further it is mentioned in the jail roll that appellant is not confined in the prison.

Syed Tarique Ahmed Shah, learned advocate for the appellant does not press the appeal.

For our satisfaction we have perused the evidence and impugned judgment. It is based upon the sound reasons. Since learned counsel for the appellant does not press the appeal on the ground that appellant has been released from the prison on expiry of his sentence, therefore, the appeal become infructuous and the same is disposed of accordingly.
