4. For hearing of main case

Dated: 11.09.2020

Ms. Asma Khan for petitioner.

It is claimed that the petitioner's land is being encroached by private persons and they are raising construction thereon. Furthermore, it is nowhere pleaded in the entire petition, as conceded by the learned counsel that official respondents are in collusion with those private persons. In case petitioner has any grievance against private respondents he may pursue his remedy before forum having jurisdiction. Such exercise cannot be undertaken in these proceedings under Article 199 of Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973 as no writ can be issued against private persons. Accordingly, the petition being misconceived is dismissed along with listed applications.
