Mr. Shahnawaz Leghari, advocate for the petitioner
*****

1. Urgency stands disposed of.

2to4. At the very outset counsel for the petitioner, under instructions, does not press this petition and submits that petitioner will approach the Justice of Peace for registration of FIR as, according to him, accused persons/private respondents have damaged the houses of petitioner party and as such committed a cognizable offence.

Be that as it may, record shows that protection has already been provided to petitioner by the learned Justice of Peace; yet the petitioner is still at liberty to approach the concerned forum for registration of FIR, if any cognizable offence is committed by the accused person(s). Instant petition, however, is dismissed as not pressed.
