~~~~~

At the outset of the proceedings learned counsel for the petitioner is satisfied that if instant miscellaneous application is disposed of with directions that in case F.I.R is registered regarding subject matter of this application, the proposed accused persons nominated in that F.I.R shall not be arrested unless tangible evidence is collected against them by the Investigating Officer of the case.

Learned A.P.G, as well as learned counsel for respondent No.2 do not controvert this proposition.

In view of above, instant criminal miscellaneous application is disposed of. Concerned SHO may further proceed in view of the Order dated 25.5.2013, passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Shahdadt/Ex-Officio Justice of Peace, and if such statement narrates ingredients of a cognizable offence, and thus F.I.R is registered, the accused persons nominated in the same shall not be arrested unless tangible evidence is collected against them, by the Investigating Officer.
