Date Order with signature of Judge

1. For order on office objection as at A.
2. For hearing of main case.

11.08.2022

Mr. Dilip Kumar advocate alongwith petitioner.
Mr. Zahid Farooq Mazari, AAG.
Respondent No.8 Khalil Rehman and respondent No.11 Karina
Kumari @ Ayesha present.

Mr. Zamir Ahmed Kalhoro advocate files Vakalatnama
on behalf of private respondents, taken on record. Heard learned counsel for respective parties.

Opportunity of meeting was provided to the alleged abductee Karima Kumari @ Ayesha (respondent No.11) with her father and mother. After such meeting she contends that she intends to join her parents as alleged marriage was result of abduction. Such plea is controverted by learned counsel for respondents. Learned counsel for respondents further contends that 164 CrPC statement was already recorded in FIR No.136/2022 of PS Qazi Ahmed wherein Karina Kumari @ Ayesha stated that she has contracted marriage on her own freewill without any coercion and such FIR has been disposed of as C-class.

In view of statement of the prosecutor, Karina Kumari @
Ayesha would be at liberty to join her parents.

With regard to forcible abduction or any relief if complainant party is aggrieved with the prosecution, they would be at liberty to approach concerned authorities or challenge the order passed by the District Court.

Petition is disposed of. Registrar of this court shall ensure that police squad is provided to Karina Kumari @ Ayesha to nestle her to respective place.
