19.9.2014

Mr. Mohsin Ali Pathan, advocate for applicant/complainant.

Mr. Imtiaz Ali Jalbani, A.P.G.

This is an application for cancellation of bail which order was passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Kandhkot on 05.3.2014 on sound reasoning and grounds. In the bail order, it is observed that the offences or injuries caused by co-accused to the complainant did not fall within the prohibitory clause of section 497, Cr.P.C and even witnesses appears to be interested persons and close relatives and no independent witnesses were cited and it was held that the case is of further enquiry. Learned A.P.G also assisted and said that once the bail order is passed the complainant has to come up with very strong grounds which are lacking in the instant case. As far as the alleged threats are concerned, I am of the view that at the first instance the applicant has to approach before the trial Court. Since no case for cancellation of bail is made out, I dismiss the same having no substance. Listed applications are also disposed of.
