Attorney of the petitioner along with petitioner
present in person
.X.X.X.X.

1. Urgency application granted.

2 to 4: Attorney of the petitioner has appeared and submitted that before the sad demise of her husband she was living peacefully along with other family members i.e brothers of her deceased husband, however after sad demise she is being threatened to vacate the premises by private respondents. She submits that on account of some dispute she has even lodged an FIR against the respondents which is pending before the Court having jurisdiction in this regard.

I have heard the attorney. It appears to be a dispute in respect of immovable property amongst the family members and she may agitate her grievance before the Court having jurisdiction i.e. Civil Court or the Court of Sessions Judge under Illegal Dispossession Act in case she may desire, however writ cannot be issued against the private respondents. The petition is therefore, dismissed along with pending applications.
