Petitioners namely Rasool Buksh and Muhammad Siddiq are present in person. It is admitted that their respective suits are pending before the civil Court in respect of the immovable property which is not disputed by the respondent's Counsel who is present along with respondent No.14. Respondent claimed to have made investment on certain piece of land (fish pond). Be that as it may, dispute in respect of title of the immovable property cannot be entertained under Article 199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan and since they are already before the civil Court, let the issues pending therein be decided. However the official respondents to act in accordance with law.

Petitions stand disposed of in the above terms.
