Replies are filed by official respondents, which are taken on record.

The dispute apparently is of financial nature between petitioner and respondent No.9. Petitioner No.1 has also filed a suit bearing No.148 of 2018 in the Court of VI-Sr. Civil Judge Karachi West. It is claimed that certain interim orders were also passed against respondent No.9 as well as Bank in that suit. I would not like to comment as far as merits of the case are concerned since interim orders were passed in respect of the cheques of the plaintiff/petitioner lying with respondent No.9 as it may affect the proceedings however the restraining order in respect of such instrument were passed without any security. The act of lodging FIR in respect of the cheques, which were bounced on its presentation is not harassment though it may found to be in violation of the interim order dated 19.04.2018, referred above. As such, the facts, as narrated, cannot be considered as harassment. The official respondents however are directed to act in accordance with law.

Petition along with listed application stands disposed of in the above terms.
