1. Urgency granted.
2. This petition pertains to restoration of electricity, as allegedly it is disconnected on account of theft of electricity by the petitioner. Those consumers who are facing charges of electricity theft are not deem to have approached with clean hands. For it all there is false allegation that allegation is brush aside restoration of electricity by any forum including this court is not appropriate. However such determination as to whether petitioner was involved in any kind of theft being consumer of KE can be adjudicated by forum which can primarily be a civil court. Hence, question raised by the petitioner cannot be entertained in the petition under Article 199 of the Constitution. The petitioner is left with option to avail the remedy as available under the law. This petition alongwith pending application is dismissed.
