Mr. Aftab Ahmed Baloch, Advocate for the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that although the petitioner has got civil dispute with the private respondents but the official respondents are causing harassment to the petitioner.

We have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and seen prayer clause. Under the garb of harassment the petitioner is seeking directions to the respondents that they shall not tamper with the record of rights pertaining to property of the petitioner, which relief being factual in nature cannot be granted in the petition. No proof has been filed showing that the official respondents have ever caused harassment to the petitioner. There are cases already pending in the civil court between the parties over dispute on property. Therefore, the petitioner may approach the same court for redressal of his any grievance in respect of his property. Accordingly, this petition is dismissed in limine alongwith listed applications.
