During arguments, it has transpired that the suit is fixed for final arguments and this appeal has been filed against the order dated 15.10.2024 whereby certain applications among others were dismissed in non-prosecution besides application for its status-quo on the ground that already status-quo was operating in the suit.

We have heard learned counsel for the parties. Since the matter is already fixed for final arguments. We don't find any merits in this appeal and dismiss the same alongwith listed applications. However, till final arguments are rendered and decision is made, with consent it is ordered that no third party interest shall be created.
