Mr. Mazhar Ali Leghari advocate for applicant
Mr. Shahid Shaikh, A.P.G.

Learned counsel at the very outset submits that in fact compromise has been arrived at between the parties out of the court and the complainant has pardoned the accused. He submits that such applications have been filed before the trial court where almost entire exercise has been completed viz. the publication in newspaper and statement of complainant party wherein they have pardoned the accused. He submits that in case directions are issued to the trial court to finalize the proceedings within a week and pass order in accordance with law he would not be pressing present bail application. Such proposition when confronted to the learned APG appearing on behalf of State, he raised no objection.

In view of above, the present bail application is dismissed as not pressed. However, the learned trial court is directed to complete the compromise proceedings, which as per learned counsel have been finalized, within a week of receipt of this order and pass order in accordance with law.
