Mr. Shahbaz Ali Brohi, Advocate for the Applicant a/w the Applicant.

Mr. Aitbar Ali Bullo, Deputy Prosecutor General, Sindh a/w SIP Sher Muhammad Jaffery, S.H.O., P.S. Jagan at Humayoon.

.-.-.-.-.-.-.-.-.-.-.

Through instant Criminal Miscellaneous Application, the applicant has impugned order dated 10.12.2019, whereby the learned Sessions Judge, Shikarpur dismissed the Criminal Miscellaneous Application No.1298/2019 filed by the applicant under section 22-A (6) & 22-B Cr.P.C., whereby the applicant sought directions to S.H.O. P.S. Jagan at Humayoon (respondent No.2) to register the F.I.R. against the proposed accused, who committed cognizable offence.

From a perusal of the impugned order, it appears that the learned counsel for the applicant with consultation of the applicant did not press the prayer of registration of the F.I.R., however, sought for protection and therefore, the learned Ex-officio Justice of Peace directed the said S.H.O to ensure the protection to the applicant. Learned counsel for the applicant states that infact he withdrew from the prayer of lodgment of F.I.R. as the learned Ex-officio Justice of Peace was bent upon to impose fine amount against the applicant.

Respondents No.6, 7 and 8 are present in person and state that applicant is not closely related to them and she has filed this Criminal Miscellaneous Application for ill motives and even otherwise they have no objection on her love marriage with Habibullah; and even otherwise the alleged marriage was contracted by the applicant about nine months back.

Learned counsel for the applicant submits that Statements of respondents No.6, 7 & 8 may be taken on record and this Criminal Miscellaneous Application may be disposed of by directing the S.S.P Shikarpur and the S.H.O, P.S Jaggan at Humayoon to provide legal protection to the applicant in accordance with law. Order accordingly.
