M/s. Ashok Kumar K. Jambah and Asadullah Soomro, advocates along with Applicant Sikandar Hayat Buriro

1. Urgent application is granted.
2. Granted subject to all just exceptions.
3. Through instant bail application, applicant Sikandar Hayat Buriro seeks protective bail in NAB Reference No.13 of 2020.

Counsel for the Applicant submits that applicant was on pre-arrest bail granted by the trial Court initially; however, due to some family disputes, he cloaked himself and did not appear before the trial Court hence his application for interim pre-arrest was dismissed. He further submits that now the family disputes have been resolved, therefore, he ^{has} surfaced and intends to surrender himself before the trial Court but he apprehends his arrest at the hands of police as NBWs have been issued by the trial Court, hence this application.

Be that as it may, without touching merits and demerits of the case and in order to enable him to appear before concerned Court, applicant is admitted to protective bail for a period of seven (07) days commencing from today, subject to his furnishing solvent surety in the sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty thousand) and PR bond in the like amount to the satisfaction of Additional Registrar of this Court. This order shall cease to have its effect on expiry of said period or on appearance of applicant before concerned Court, whichever is earlier. In case, applicant fails to surrender before the concerned Court within stipulated period, his bail bonds shall stand forfeited.

Bail application stands disposed of in the above terms.
