Mr. Muniruddin, advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. Jahangir Khan, advocate for respondents No. 1 & 2.

Learned counsel for the petitioner, after arguing the matter at some length, does not press the petition and seeks time to vacate the demised premises. He has proposed one year for this purpose, which has not been agreed by learned counsel for respondents No. 1 and 2. However, by consent, a period of six months and 15 days from today is fixed for the petitioner to vacate the demised premises. Meanwhile, he shall pay rant and all other dues. In case, he fails to pay the rent and other dues meanwhile, the executing court would be at liberty to issue a writ of possession and get the vacant possession from the petitioner without any further notice. In any case the petitioner shall vacate the premises either within or on expiry of six months and 15 days without any notice.

The petition is accordingly disposed of along with pending applications.
