Ms. Amna Ansari, Addl. P.G.

ORDER

Muhammad Iqbal Kalhoro, J:- Applicant has filed an application u/s 22-A & 22-B Cr.P.C. for registration of FIR against proposed accused, which has been dismissed by impugned order by the learned Additional Sessions Judge Karachi, East, holding that the dispute between the parties is of civil nature regarding sale and purchase of immovable property.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant has relied upon PLD 2007 S.C. 539 and submits that enquiry before registration of FIR is not permitted by law.

3. Be that as it may, the order is based on proper reasoning and is not an out come of some enquiry report conducted by the police before registration of FIR. The learned Judge after hearing parties has concluded that this dispute is of civil nature, which applicant intends to controvert into criminal one. No case therefore, for indulgence is made out, this criminal miscellaneous application is dismissed accordingly.

4. This criminal miscellaneous application is disposed of.
