ORDER

MUHAMMAD IQBAL KALHORO, J:- Applicant is complainant in Crime No.202/2020 at P.S. Tando Adam City District Sanghar being Special Case No.11/2020. By means of this application he is seeking transfer of this case alongwith connected cases registered under the Sindh Arms Act to some other ATC Court on the ground that behavior of Presiding Officer is not appropriate and he is always expressing that these cases are outcome of political rivalry and are political cases.

Learned counsel for respondents has opposed this application so also learned APG who have submitted that on this ground the case cannot be transferred as except casting bald aspersions on the presiding officer only, no evidence tangible enough to consider about transfer of the case has been placed on record.

We have considered submissions of the parties and perused the material available on record. No cogent ground has been stated by the applicant to justify allowing this application. A vague ground of not having trust over presiding officer, that too without any reason and substance, cannot be permitted to undermine well established justice system. Casting aspersions on presiding officer is easy but proving it is difficult. The applicant has chosen easy way to get his case transferred without, however, substantiating the allegations against the Presiding Officer. No case for indulgence to transfer the case is made out. Consequently, this criminal transfer application is dismissed.
