MUHAMMAD IQBAL KALHORO J: It is alleged in FIR that complainant is dealing with wood scrape and entered into a contract of purchasing the same with the applicants against Rs.2, 400,000/-. He gave Rs.500,000/- and one cheque of Rs.500,000/- to be deposited in the account of applicant Manzoor. The remaining payment was to be made after some time but when delivery of wood scrape was not made to the complainant and the accused refused to receive his call, he approached them but was threatened on the point of a pistol, hence, he registered FIR on 24.08.2023.

2. Applicants' counsel is absent but they have argued that they have already entered into compromise with the complainant; that the case has been challaned and they are no more required for further investigation.

3. Learned Addl: PG has opposed bail.

4. The FIR shows that it was registered after more than two years. The offences do not fall within the prohibitory clause u/s 497(i) Cr. PC. It is yet to be determined during the trial whether any threat was given by the applicants or not. In the circumstances, this bail application is allowed and ad-interim pre-arrest bail granted to the applicants order dated 07.08.2024 is hereby confirmed on same terms and conditions.

5. Bail application stands disposed of in the above terms. The observations made hereinabove are tentative in nature and would not prejudice case of either party at trial.
