Omais Abro, Appellant present in person

Muhammad Iqbal Kalhoro, J:- This appeal impugns orders dated 29.11.2024 and 05.12.2024 passed by learned Single Judge of this Court in Execution Application No.76/2019 (Suit No.706/2014).

2. Appellant is present in person in terms of last order dated 10.03.2025 calling upon to satisfy the Court on limitation of this appeal filed admittedly beyond the time of 30 days. Appellant has drawn our attention to CMA No.603/2025 filed u/s 5 of the Limitation Act by him.

3. We have heard him. It is settled that delay of each day in filing the case in the Court has to be explained. Neither in the application u/s 5 of the Limitation Act, nor in its supporting affidavit, appellant has explained delay of each day. His only argument is that some other proceedings filed by him were pending before this Court, which were dismissed and he was advised to avail the remedy before a proper forum; and he in compliance of the same has filed this appeal. This cannot be considered as a valid ground for filing appeal with delay, which is not explained. We therefore, find no merit in arguments of the appellant and dismiss this appeal in limine along with pending applications.

This High Court Appeal is disposed of in above terms.
