Mr. Waseem Sheikh, advocate for petitioner

ORDER

Muhammad Iqbal Kalhoro, J:- This petition has impugned an order dated 26.09.2025 passed by respondent No.7, the Banking Mohtasib (Ombudsman) Pakistan, dismissing the complaint filed by the petitioner on the ground that the funds credited in the account by respondent No.8, Ali Nawaz, the Sole Proprietor of Ali Enterprisers, have been blocked at his request being disputed. It appears that there were business transactions between the petitioner and respondent No.8, on account of which some payment was transferred to the petitioner's account but it was not then released by the respondent No.6, Meezan Bank on the ground that its release was blocked at the request of the transferor/respondent No.8.

2. We have heard learned counsel for the petitioner. He has failed to satisfy the Court as to why he has not challenged the said order before the President as provided under the law. In response to such query, he has submitted that he may be given a permission to file the appeal. It goes without saying that if the law provides a remedy to an aggrieved person, no permission is required to avail the same. We, therefore, find this petition to be without merit and accordingly dismiss it, along with all pending applications.
