Mr. Abdul Hamid Bhurgri, Additional Advocate General, Sindh
a/w Mushtaque Ali Korejo, CMO, M.C, Naudero.

The Chief Municipal Officer, Municipal Committee, Naudero has filed his comments along-with copy of a letter written by Chief Municipal Officer, Municipal Committee, Naudero dated 17.5.2019. The letter reflects that Irshad Ali son of Muhammad Saleh was working in Council as Naib Qasid and expired on 3.3.2018 while he was in service and that the legal heirs of deceased Irshad Ali has applied for the appointment on deceased quota. Chief Municipal Officer, Municipal Committee, Naudero, has also stated that Local Government may adjust the petitioner on the post of Peon BS-01, which is lying vacant in the schedule of establishment of the Naudero Council. It further appears from the comments that the relevant documents of the petitioner have also been forwarded to the competent authority being Local Government department Govt. of Sindh for his approval/permission. In view of this development learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he will not press this petition however; requests that Secretary, Local Government Department, Govt. of Sindh, be directed to take the decision expeditiously. The request made by learned counsel is reasonable therefore, while disposing off this petition, we direct the Secretary Local Government, Govt. of Sindh, to decide the case of appointment on deceased quota of the petitioner within one month.

Petition stands disposed of in the above terms.
