~~~~~

Learned counsel submits that the applicants were held innocent after investigation and their names were placed in column No.2 of the challan, but the learned Magistrate took cognizance of the case and at first instance ordered issuance of notices against the applicants and without service of notices upon applicants, the NBWs have been issued against them. Learned counsel expresses his anxiety that the applicants will be arrested.

As the applicants were declared innocent, the NBWs issued against them are converted into B.Ws in the sum of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand rupees) each. The applicants may furnish surety before the learned trial Court.
