~~~~~

Alleged detainee Mst. Raveena has been brought up and is present before this Court. She is found little sort of hearing. However, on being repeatedly questioned, she was found able and qualified to express herself. She was allowed to sit in the Court room alongwith her mother (applicant), whereafter when it was found that she was stabilized she made specific statement that her husband is not treating her well and her minor boy Yasir Ali is available with her mother and she also wants to go with her mother.

In the present circumstances, it is apparent that she has been detained by the husband prima-facie without her consent and well being but this is not for this Court to determine any further. However, the only required determination being the will of the alleged detainee, which having been expressed, as such she has been allowed to go with her mother i.e. the applicant. The parties having civil remedies as available to them may agitate the same before the proper forum. The application stands disposed of with directions to SHO P.S Darri, Larkana present in Court to ensure that the applicant and alleged detainee are provided due protection without any illegal disturbance on part of any one, even the said husband, who has open legal remedy, which is the only source for him in the matter left and available to him.
