Mr. Vinod Kumar Jesrani, advocate for the applicants.
Mr. Liaquat Ali Shar, Addl. A.G.

=====

Learned counsel submits that applicants have passed away and their legal heirs are not in his contact, therefore, he is pleading no instructions. From the record it appears that this matter is pending since 18.8.2015 without any useful progress.

From the conduct of the legal heirs of the applicants, it appears that after death of applicants, they have no more interest to pursue the matter. In this regard, I am fortified by case of Ghulam Qadir and others v. Sh. Abdul Wadood and others (PLD 2016 Supreme Court 712), in which Hon'ble Supreme Court has held as under:

"Revision Court should not be compelled to decide a civil revision on merits in the absence of either party (ies) just because it had been admitted to regular hearing. Court should not be rendered a slave to a person who filed a revision petition and subsequently choose not to appear before the revision court due to disinterest or ignorance/indolence and neither should such person be awarded a premium/privilege in such regard, as this would result in (possible) injustice to the contesting party. "

In view of above, keeping this Civil Revision pending for an indefinite period would serve no useful purpose therefore, instant Civil Revision is dismissed for non-prosecution.
