Hearing of case

1. For hearing of main case
2. For hearing of CMA No.25/2005

23-11-2020

Applicant No.3, Dhani Bakhsh, in person.
Mr. Sarfraz A. Akhund, Advocate for respondents No.1(e) to 1(m).
Mr. Mehboob Ali Wassan, Assistant Advocate General Sindh.

Applicant No.3, present, after proceeding with the case for some time essentially and frankly concedes that the Civil Court proceedings in respect of Irrigation authorities may not have been available on account of the restrict present in the relevant law and submits that these proceedings initiated in the year 1992 may be considered for his grievance that despite being an agriculturist and having legal right to the land is unable to acquire the benefits of statutory duties of the official respondents of Irrigation authorities for his due share of water.

Learned AAG as well as learned counsel for the private respondents also preferred not to object to an order requiring the Irrigation authorities to ensure that the present applicant be included and provided his due share of water and/or included in the share list for provision of his legal entitlement of water for the purpose of agriculture.

In the circumstances, while the two impugned orders are not disturbed, the Irrigation authorities are directed to act accordingly and also to submit report of compliance within a period of thirty (30) days. The applicant is directed to ensure production of titled documents / revenue record etc. before the Irrigation authorities in this regard.

Matter stands disposed of in the above terms.
