Sardar Zafar Hussain, advocate holds brief for Mr. Khalid Mehmood Rajper, advocate for the applicant.

While numerous questions have been proposed, learned counsel demonstrates from the record that the impugned judgment is entirely perfunctory in nature and is devoid of any due discussion and / or deliberation. Learned counsel demonstrates that five (5) paragraphs of reproduction are concluded by the final unqualified conclusion for which no foundation is apparent from the impugned judgment. He further states that the impugned judgment has been authored by the learned single Member in apparent violation of statutory pecuniary jurisdiction. Under such circumstances, learned counsel states that the impugned judgment cannot be sustained and the same may be set-aside and matter be remanded back to the learned Tribunal for adjudication afresh in accordance with law. The plea appears to be well reasoned. Order accordingly.

A copy of this decision may also be sent under the seal of this Court and the signature of the Registrar to the learned Customs Appellate Tribunal, as required per section 196(10) of the Customs Act, 1969.
