ADNAN-UL-KARIM MEMON J:- Through this petition filed under Article 199 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan 1973 the petitioners seeks directions for respondents No.2 to 4 to restrain the official respondents No.5 and 6, who are allegedly causing harassment to them at the behest of private respondents.

2. Counsel submits that petitioner No.1 being sui juris has contracted free-will marriage with petitioner No.2 and due to which un-ceremonial marriage the private respondents are causing them undue harassment through SHOs of P.S Qasimabad and Pagrio (respondents No.5 and 6 respectively. He seeks legal protection for the petitioners

3. Learned Additional A.G Sindh submits that no harassment has been caused by the police authorities and they will act strictly in accordance with law and will also provide legal protection to the petitioners as and when warranted under the law. Counsel for the petitioners expressed satisfaction and seeks disposal of the petition in terms of the statement of learned Additional A.G Sindh.

4. In view of the above, the instant petition is disposed of with directions to respondent police authorities to act strictly in accordance with law and provide legal protection to the petitioners as and when warranted under the law. The respondents No.5 and 6 (SHOs of P.S Qasimabad and Pangrio) are further directed to take bond from the private respondents in the sum of Rs.1,00,000/- each to the effect that no harm shall be caused to petitioners and the same bond shall be kept at Police Station.
