=

The petitioner seeks a service structure for Nursing Inspectors regarding scholarship, seniority, promotion and allowances, alleging discrimination vis-à-vis similarly placed employees of other universities.

Petitioner at this stage has confined his grievance to the absence of such a service structure.

Learned counsel for the respondents referred to the order dated 13.12.2023, whereby the competent authorities were directed to consider the petitioner's grievance in light of the applicable rules and service structure.

Without touching the merits of the case, since the matter involves a policy decision, the petition is disposed of with directions to the competent authority to decide the matter within three (03) months, in accordance with law.
