ORDER SHEET

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH, KARACHI

Crl. Bail Application Nos.2615 & 2846 of 2026

Date	Order with signature of Judge

---

1. For orders on office objections as at flag 'A'.
2. For hearing of bail application.

10.11.2026.

Ms. Asma Khan Advocate for the Applicants along with applicants present on bail except applicant No.8.

M/s. Shaikh Jawaid Mir and Ms. Samreen Ehtesham, Advocates for the Complainant a/w Complainant present in person.

Mr. Muhammad Mohsin Mangi, APG.

Applicant No.8 Kishwar Ali is absent. Learned counsel for the applicants submits that he has proceeded to the United States of America and is expected to return within twenty days. She, therefore, does not press the application to his extent. Accordingly, the bail application, insofar as it relates to applicant No.8, stands dismissed as not pressed.

The remaining applicants have invoked the jurisdiction of this Court directly for the concession of pre-arrest bail. During the hearing, learned counsel for the complainant, as well as the complainant present in person, categorically stated that the applicants have been regularly attending the proceedings before the trial Court and are neither being threatened nor subjected to intimidation by the complainant or anyone acting on his behalf. This factual position was expressly acknowledged by learned counsel for the applicants.

In these circumstances, when no exceptional ground warranting direct recourse to the extraordinary jurisdiction of this Court has been demonstrated, the applicants ought, in the first instance, to seek the appropriate remedy before the Court of competent jurisdiction. Nevertheless, to safeguard their liberty for the limited purpose of enabling them to approach the concerned Court, the instant applications, to the extent of the remaining applicants, are treated as application for protective bail, which is accordingly granted for ten (10) days, commencing from 10.11.2026 and expiring on 19.11.2026, against the surety already furnished before this Court.

The protection so extended shall automatically cease upon the applicants' surrender before the concerned Court or on expiry of the stipulated period, whichever occurs earlier. In the event of their failure to surrender within the prescribed period, the surety shall be liable to forfeiture in accordance with law. The concerned Court shall consider their applications independently, strictly on their own merits and in accordance with law, uninfluenced by any observation contained herein.

Both applications stand disposed of in the foregoing terms. Office shall place a copy of this order in the connected application
