

IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH AT KARACHI

Suit No. 983 of 2013

Date	Order with signature of Judge
1.	For orders as to maintainability of suit (vide Courts order dated 20.11.2013)
2.	For hearing of CMA No.9270/2013 (U/s. 151 CPC)

05/12/2013:

Plaintiff present in person.
M/s. Ch. Muhammad Farooq, & Samina Iqbal,
Advocates for NADRA.

Plaintiff was directed to satisfy the Court about the maintainability of the suit. Today counsel for NADRA has handed over original CNIC of daughter-in-law of the Plaintiff in open Court to plaintiff on the basis of authority letter in his favour to receive the CNIC from NADRA office. The original authority is handed over to the learned counsel for the NADRA for their record. The grievance, if any, of the plaintiff stands satisfied irrespective of the fact that the suit is maintainable or not. Today plaintiff was unable to satisfy the Court about allegation of criminal conduct against the staff of NADRA and till date he has not lodged any criminal complaint before any competent authority which may take cognizance on such allegation against the staff of NADRA. He may file complaint with relevant agencies. This suit is dismissed alongwith all pending applications as nothing is left in this suit to continue.

JUDGE

S.M