Mr. Abbas Ali, Advocate for Plaintiff
Mr. Ashraf Ali But, Advocate for Defendant No.4.

This is suit for declaration and permanent injunction against the Government functionaries except defendant No.5 against whom the plaintiff claims that he is having fear of dispossession. Without touching the merits of the case, the plaintiff says that he will be satisfied if the Court observes that he shall not be disposed from the premises without due course of law. Therefore, without commenting on the ownership of the plaintiff in respect of suit property, the defendants are directed to ensure that the plaintiff shall be treated in accordance with law and should not be dispossessed, if in possession of the premises in dispute, without due course of law. In these terms the suit is disposed of and listed application is also dismissed having become infructuous.
