Mr. Tarique Ali Mirjat Advocate for the petitioner.

=

1. Granted.

2 to 4 Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner contracted marriage with Mst. Bakhatwar on 11.10.2013 with her free will, however, her parents and relatives were annoyed on such marriage and they pressurized the petitioner to handover lady to them. He further contended that a faisla was held and the petitioner handed over his wife Mst. Bakhtawar to Nek Mard respondent No.5 who assured to hold another faisla within three months but no faisla was held and now the petitioner apprehends that his wife would be killed by the private respondents. The allegations have been leveled against the private respondents and no petition lies against the private respondents. The petitioner may approach the proper forum for initiating action against the private respondents in accordance with law. The petition is not maintainable in law and is dismissed.

With the above observation, this petition is disposed of.
