Mr. Noor ul Amin Sipio advocate files his power on behalf of respondent No.1, which is taken on record. He informs that the applicants before the trial court had challenged the installation of mobile phone Tower of Telenor Company at the suit premises. The plaint was rejected by the learned trial court u/o 7 rule 11 CPC vide order dated 03.09.2007 and such order was maintained by the learned appellate court vide Judgment and Decree dated 5.10.2007 and 10.10.2007 respectively. The applicants thereafter filed instant Revision Application. Learned counsel further contends that after receiving notice of this Revision Application, the respondent No.1 decided not to install their mobile tower at the disputed place/ property, therefore, this revision application has become infructuous and that's way even the counsel for the applicants is not appearing since 07.12.2012.. Even the applicants are not in contact with their counsel therefore, counsel for the applicants has already sent a formal notice to the applicants which is available on record.

In the above circumstances, this Revision Application has already served its purpose, therefore, is dismissed for non-prosecution alongwith pending CMA 1163/2007.
