

ORDER SHEET
IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH,
CIRCUIT COURT, HYDERABAD.

C.P. No.S-595 of 2014.

DATE	ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE
-------------	--------------------------------------

12.08.2014.

Mr. Ahsan Gul Dahri, Advocate for the Petitioners.

Mr. Ashfaque Nabi Qazi, Asstt. A.G. a/w SIP Muhammad Hashim Brohi, SHO P.S. Noriabad, Inspector Abdul Sattar Solangi, SHO P.S. Tando Yousif and SIP Abdul Hakim on behalf of SSP, Hyderabad.

Learned A.A.G.files comments of respondents No.2,3 and 4, which are taken on record and copy supplied to other side.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has made serious allegations against the police officers in the nature of extortion at the hands of police. He wants protection from the same police or restraining order against the police officials.

I have never come across to a case law in which any restraining order has been issued against culprits not to commit any offence. The other aspect of the case is that the learned counsel for the Petitioners who has made this complaint through this petition before this Court has never sent a small frivolous letter to the SSP/respondent No.2 to highlight the conduct of his sub-ordinates. The Court cannot take the responsibility of moral and legal conduct of the parties merely on the verbal allegation of the Petitioner. There are several remedies including Anti-Corruption and the Police Act etc which provides remedies to the common citizen for their redressal against police.

In presence of alternate remedy which has not been attempted to avail by the Petitioner, this petition is not maintainable. Accordingly, this petition is dismissed.

JUDGE.
