This petition is not maintainable for the following reasons:-

1. This is an order passed on interlocutory application for additional evidence in the appeal filed before the appellate Court in rent case.
2. FRA is pending and petition does not lie against any interim order passed by appellate authority during the pendency of petition.
3. Once final order is passed, all interim order passed during the proceeding can be challenged along with the final order.

In view of the above legal position, this petition is dismissed along with all pending applications.
