2. For hearing of CMA No.17550/2014

05.1.2015

Mr. Omer Soomro, advocate for the plaintiff.
Mr. Muhammad Saleem Khan, Advocate for Defendant No.1.

Learned counsel says that Defendant No.1 is violating the order dated 03.1.2012 whereby consent decree was passed specifically mentioning that the Defendant No.1 shall not raise any construction as well as will not run any marriage hall and its allied activities on commercial basis on plots bearing survey No.20 and 52, sheet No.CF 1-5, admeasuring 2400 and 26000 sq.yds respectively situated at Old Clifton Quarters, Karachi. However, after disposal of the suit marriage activities are going on the suit plot. Learned counsel for Defendant No.1 states that may be it was only of the family marriages functions. However, learned counsel for the Defendant further contends that there is no such activity is going on. In view of the statement this application is disposed of with a fresh warning that no marriage take place on the premises and its allied activities on commercial basis on plots bearing survey No.20 and 52, sheet No.CF 1-5, admeasuring 2400 and 26000 sq.yds respectively situated at Old Clifton Quarters, Karachi as per decree. However, if any, such activity is found there without notice on urgent basis Plaintiff file application, the commissioner will be appointed for inspection of the premises and if such activity took place in future the action would be taken with all sincerity.

With above observation application for inspection has become infructuous; same is disposed of in above terms.
