In continuation to the order dated 6.10.2015 and 12.10.2015 all the requirements to ascertain the presence of the parties before the Court entering into compromise have been completed. Today counsel for Respondents has placed on record properly stamped power of attorneys, which were filed alongwith memo of compromise application. The photocopies of the same were taken on record, however, originals were given to him for completing insufficient stamping on these power of attorneys. Original power of attorneys are not taken on record. Parties are present and admit the contents of compromise. In view of this compromise there is hardly any legal impediment for accepting the compromise. Application is allowed and appeal is disposed of in terms of compromise.
