Maqbool Baqar, J. We have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Additional PG for the respondents and perused the record. The trial Court was competent to decide the matter on the evidence that was already recorded. However, it has chosen to dismiss the case. We would, in the circumstances, convert the petition into an appeal, allow the same, set aside the impugned judgment, and remand the case back to the trial Court for it to decide the matter within one month from the receipt of a copy of this order. Office is directed to send the order instantly so that it may be complied with accordingly.
